

MULLIN, THOMAS M.
January 16, 1898-June 6, 1955

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church tomorrow (Friday) at 2:00 p.m. for a life-time resident, Thomas M. Mullin. Mr. Mullin's death at the age of 57 years followed a long illness. He had been at West Nebraska General hospital for four days preceding his demise.

The Rev. J. B. Milstead and Floyd Hopper will be the ministers, and IOOF services will be conducted at the graveside in the Wheatland cemetery. Larry Daly, George O'Brien, John Mylet, Wayne King, Lee Montgomery and Ross Donaldson will be pallbearers.

Surviving in addition to his widow, Edna Mullin of Wheatland are their sons, Jerry Mullin of Wheatland and Larry Mullin of Sheridan, two brothers, Charles Mullin of Wheatland and Ed Mullins, Nampa, Ida., a sister, Mrs. Ralph McClure of Glendo and four grandchildren.

Born at Wheatland January 16, 1898, he was the son of John and Julie Murrey Mullin; he had been a rancher all of his life. He was affiliated with the Christian church, the Odd Fellows lodge and Grange.
