

NOE, LEO J.

September 1, 1891-February 16, 1919

The remains of Leo J. Noe arrived in Wheatland from France and will be buried at the local cemetery with military honors at some hour on Friday not arranged as the Time goes to press. The funeral services will be held at the Catholic church in charge of the American Legion. First Class Private Russell C. Turnbaugh of Fort Russell arrived as escort for the body.

Leo Noe was one of the boys who went from Wheatland in 1918. He went overseas soon after entering the army.
