

Services for Lloyd Nordstrom, 68, who died March 21 in Wheatland, were held March 26 at 10:30 a.m. in the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Dan Barcus officiating.

Lloyd Elmer Nordstrom was born Dec. 15, 1915, in Ceresco, Neb., the son of Anton and Mabel Nordstrom.

The family purchased a farm west of Wheatland where he was raised. After completing his education and after the death of his father, Lloyd farmed the family farm until he sold it in 1950.

He married Willie Schreyer that year. When a drought hit this area, he moved his custom harvesting business to Washington where he operated until 1983 when ill health forced his retirement. Between the harvest seasons in Washington he operated a custom trenching business in Wheatland.

Survivors include his wife, Willie of Wheatland, and two brothers. Wilmer E. Nordstrom of Thermopolis, and Keith D. Nordstrom of LaPuente, Cal. A brother, Alvin, preceded him in death.

A memorial in his name has been established to the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
