

Rev. Irvin Noyce

11-21-1978

Rev. Irvin Noyce, 90, of Wheatland, died Nov. 21, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

He was born in Stockton, Kan., Oct. 9, 1888, the son of John and Carrie Ensign Noyce. He met and married his wife, Minnie Green in Kansas. They homesteaded in Colorado in 1914 and farmed there for a short time. They moved to Wyoming in 1924 and became a missionary for the American Sunday School Union for the eastern half of Wyoming.

He was very active in the mission field until 1940 when he accepted the position of rural mail carrier for the Fletcher Park area. He retired from postal service in 1958 and has spent his retirement years in Wheatland with his wife, Minnie.

Irvin Noyce will be remembered for his interests in Camp Grace, a youth church camp in Laramie Peak area. Through his determination and efforts, Camp

Grace was started and has been maintained for the enjoyment of many young people.

He is survived by his wife, Minnie, of Wheatland, 2 sons, Robert and David Noyce of Wheatland, and one daughter, Esther Haburn of Salem, Ore.

He is also survived by 3 sisters, Josephine Fleming of Hastings, Neb. and Lettie Caruthers and Ruth McDaniel, both of Spring Valley, Calif. Surviving also are 7 grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother and sister.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Wheatland Saturday, Nov. 25, at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Delbert Dick officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established to Camp Grace, in care of the Schrader-Prell Funeral Home.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
