

10-28 HARRY ANTHONY OLSEN 1986

Services for Harry Olsen, 69, who died in Wheatland, Oct. 28, were held Oct. 31 at 10:30 a.m. in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with Pastor Gordon Swedberg officiating.

Born June 1, 1917, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Harry Anthony Olsen was the son of Arther and Clara (Pulver) Olsen. At an early age he moved with his family to Muskegon, Mich., where he spent his childhood. He was in the U.S. Army and was a member of the group which invaded Germany. While in the service he received a Purple Heart. He was discharged in October of 1945, then worked in various states, spending eight years in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. In 1983 he moved to Wheatland.

He was a member of the Wheatland V.F.W. and the Disabled American Veterans.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made to the Wheatland, V.F.W.

Survivors include his son Gerald Olsen of Wheatland, three daughters: Janet Kraft of Cedarburg, Wisc., Irene Upton of Muskegon, Mich., Vickie Feuling of Oconomowoc, Wisc., a brother, Robert Olsen of Flint, Mich., a sister, Helen Poquin of Muskegon, 16 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Besides his parents he was preceded in death by two sisters, one brother and a great grandson.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.