James Brent Page

Feb. 10, 1949 – July 30, 2018

James Brent Page passed away Monday, July 30, 2018, in Provo, Utah, following a long illness.

Jim was born to LeGrande and Dorothy Page in Wheatland on Feb. 10, 1949. He spent his happy childhood years in Wheatland. He graduated from Wheatland High School in 1971 and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in mining engineering, a master's degree in petroleum engineering, a degree in law and a degree in medicine, in the practice of psychiatry. Jim enjoyed all of his careers and relished learning. He served in the Army Reserves for 20 years and retired as a captain.

Jim married Karen Lund on May 24, 1986, in the Manti Utah Temple. This union brought many years of joy to Jim, as five children joined Karen and him.

He was a devout member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, serving diligently in the many callings given him throughout his life. He enjoyed hunting, camping, traveling (especially to Disneyland or the Black Hills), gardening, reading, and any activity with his family and friends.

Jim was a dedicated and loyal husband and father, devoting every moment to his family's happiness and well-being. He was a dear and loyal son, brother, uncle and friend. Jim will be deeply missed by his family and his many friends.

He is survived by his wife, Karen, and their five children, Hannah (Devin) Bell, Esther Page, Richard Page, Rebekah Page and Jennie Page; one granddaughter, Cora Jane Bell; one sister, JaNell (Robert) Hunter; his best friend, Benny Ryff; his loving cousin Ann Robinson; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his mother-in-law, Marilynn Carr.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 1, 2018, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 80 W 900 S, Orem, Utah.

Graveside services will be held 11 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 4, 2018, at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland.
