

PETERSON, BETTIE JO BOLICH

June 23, 1921- August 13, 1978

Bettie Jo Peterson, 57, died August 13 at Memorial Hospital in Cheyenne.

She was born June 23, 1921, in McCook, Nebraska, the daughter of Ollia and Jackson Bolich. She was raised in Sunrise, Wyoming, and after graduation from high school there she married Edwin C Peterson.

Bettie and Edwin lived in various Wyoming towns because of Edwin's construction jobs. She had lived Wheatland the five years after moving from Guernsey.

She is survived by her mother, Ollia Bolich of Guernsey; a son, Harold E. Peterson of Endicott, New York; a daughter, Bonnie Hohnholt of Wheatland; two brothers, Jack (Punk) Bolich of Guernsey and Eugene (Red) Bolich of Wheatland; three sisters, Beatrice Vannelli of Hartville; Helen Hughes of Long Beach, California; and Maxine Bennett of Fairbanks, Alaska. She is also survived by five grandchildren.

Services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, August 16, at the First Baptist Church in Wheatland. Interment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery. Rev. Elton Bleecker will officiate the services.

Bettie was preceded in death by father, Jackson Bolich, and her husband, Edwin C. Peterson.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
