

PHELPS, CECIL M.
March 26, 1904-November 18, 1909

Cecil, the little five-year-old son of Albert Phelps, passed away Monday after an illness of only a few days duration. Funeral services were held in the Congregational church on Tuesday, by Rev. C.H. Gilmore, and interment took place in the Wheatland cemetery. The bereaved father and little daughter have the heartfelt sympathy of everyone in their sad affliction.
