

Fred Wood Phifer, III
April 28, 1929 – September 15, 2010

The Platte County Record-Times
October 6, 2010

Fred W. Phifer passed away peacefully in Ft. Washakie, Wyoming on Wednesday, September 15, 2010 from complications of a long-term illness. He was 81.

Fred was born on April 28, 1929 in Wheatland, Wyoming, the eldest son of Wood and Margarite (Boles) Phifer. After the death of his parents and paternal grandparents (Dr. Fred Phifer and Margaret) in an automobile accident in 1935, Fred and younger brother Zack were then raised by their Uncle John Phifer alongside their cousin Tom.

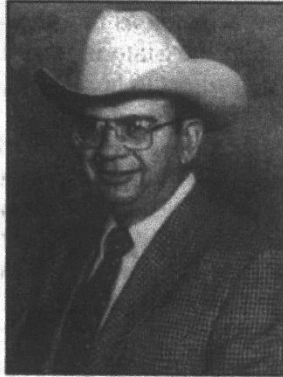

Fred graduated from Wentworth Military Academy in Lexington, Missouri in 1947 where he learned to fly along with other cadets. He received his law degree from the University of Wyoming Law School in 1952.

He married Mary Louise Shopbell (1929 - 1970) in 1950 in Iowa. They had four sons, Wood, Brook, Sky, and Star. After Mary's death in a car accident Fred went on to marry three more times (Virginia Boyd, Terri Thompson, and Susan Denker). He got Bo (a terrier) in the last divorce who then became his constant companion.

Fred loved to fly and to drive his cars (which he felt needed to be traded in at least once a year). He was an avid reader and loved his operas and musicals. He enjoyed golfing, good food and anything that was playing in a movie theatre anywhere within driving distance.

He practiced law for over half a century, primarily in Wheatland, but also in Colorado for a brief stint during his fourth marriage. He served as County Attorney for Platte County from 1974 to 1978. The highlight of his career was arguing (and winning) a case for the Toltec Watershed Improvement District in front of the United States Supreme Court in 1973.
