

Alice M. Pickerill

Funeral services for Alice M. Pickerill, 85, were held Thursday, Aug. 8, at 11 a.m., at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, with Andy Gudahl, minister, officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Pickerill died Saturday, Aug. 3 at the Goshen County Memorial Nursing Home in Torrington.

She was born Jan. 18, 1906 in Fort Dodge, Iowa, the daughter of William and Melissa (Phillips) Martin. She lived on the ranch at Laramie Peak, where she loved the wild flowers. She taught school at the Pickerill School at Laramie Peak. She was married to Thomas V. Pickerill on June 10, 1931 in Wellington, Colo.

She is survived by four children, Alice Jean Martin of Chugwater, Lois M. Pickerill and Thomas L. Pickerill, both of Wheatland, and Dorothy McDonald of Junction City, Kans. One brother, Robert Martin of St. Petersburg, Fla., 10 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren also remain.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Serving as pallbearers were Orin Martin, Tom L. Pickerill, Robin Roberts, Dick Pickerill, George Portwood and Duane Walker.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.