

James A. Pierce

March 30, 1963-April 15, 2002

Funeral services were held for James A. Pierce, 39, April 19, at 2 p.m. at First Christian Church with Andy Gudahl officiating, and interment following at Wheatland Cemetery.

Jim died April 15 after sustaining injuries in an automobile accident.

Jim was born in Scottsbluff, Neb. to Mary (Goodro) Pierce and Manley Pierce March 30, 1963.

The family moved to Wheatland, where Jim meet Cherie Harper and was married in June 9, 1984. Jim and Cherie have three children, Brandie 17, Cody 15, and Jesse 10.

Jim was a very devoted husband, and father who loved his family with all his heart and never failed to show them his love and pride in their accomplishments.

Brandie is becoming an accomplished artist, where some of her art has been displayed in local businesses.

Cody is an avid hunter, fisherman, and wrestler, Jim always enjoyed going to wrestling matches teaching his kids about the great outdoors, such as hunting, fishing, and riding four wheelers.

Jesse is his smallest son who admired his father and enjoyed going to mud racing and helping his dad in his auto mechanic business. Called the "The Shop".

Jim devoted his spare time to being an instructor of 4-H sporting clay, hunting, fishing, four-wheeling and camping, and loved spending time in the mountains with his family.

Jim always enjoyed spending time with kids, and was a great role model to all kids.

Jim is survived by wife Cherie, daughter Brandie, sons Cody, and Jesse, and his favorite dog Dutchess, his hunting buddy; mother Mary Goodro and step father Jim Goodro, both of Cheyenne; brothers, Rick Pierce and Tom Pierce and wife Roberta Pierce all from Wheatland; sister Barbe Jordan and husband Jim of Feridina Beach, Fla.; stepbrother Rocky Goodro of Saratoga; half-brother Bill Pierce of Gering, Neb.; several nieces and nephews, plus all of Jim's many, many friends.

Jim was preceded in death by his father Manley, grandfather Harold Low, and grandmother Edna May Low.

A fund has been established at Wells Fargo Bank to help Cherie defray expenses.

Jim, you are truly loved and will be greatly missed, may god bless you for all your kindness.
