

PIERCE, LEWELLYN JAMES
July 25, 1872-January 26, 1956

Graveside services were held at the Wheatland cemetery February 2 at 2 p.m. for Lewellyn James Pierce of Wray, Colo., who passed away January 26, 1956 after an extended illness. Rev. Kale King was in charge of the services.

Lewellyn James Pierce was born on July 25, 1872 at Chicago, Ill. to Charles E. and Sarah Pierce. He was a former resident of Wheatland and had lived in Colorado for the past ten years.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Helen Palmer of Lathrop, Calif., two brothers, Walter of Oakland, Calif. and Eugene of Petersburg, Fla. and one sister, Mrs. Edith Cross of Calgary, Canada. He is also survived by 11 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.