

7-3 HELEN JEAN SORNBERGER PIKE 1983

Helen Jean Sornberger Pike, 65, died after a lengthy illness at Roosevelt, Utah.

Born March 8, 1917 at Douglas to Wesley and Fay (Freeman) Sornberger she married Willis Pike on August 27, 1939 in Wheatland where they lived until 1960 when they moved to Casper.

They lived in Casper for several years then moved to Meadow Acres where they resided until moving to Roosevelt, Utah in 1981.

Jean's life centered around her family and their welfare. Jeannie or "Old Jean" as she was affectionately called, was one of the best cooks and homemakers around.

Survivors include her husband, son, Willis M. Pike Jr., daughter Bonnie Fay Horrocks, and three grandchildren, Candi, Jon and Jeffrey Horrocks, all of Roosevelt; aunts, Stella Slonaker, Salem, Ore.; and Mildred Loomis, Powell. She was preceded in death by her parents, and many other relatives.

Memorial services were held at the Olpin-Hullinger Mortuary at Roosevelt Tuesday Sept. 6.
