

Richard A. Pilcher

11-6-1989

Richard A. Pilcher, 73 of Casper died November 6, at the Wyoming Medical Center, following a lengthy illness.

He was born March 14, 1916 in Wheatland to Albert and Vera Eva (Voyer) Pilcher. He was raised and educated in Wheatland. During World War II he served with the U.S. Air Force.

Pilcher worked for the Irrigation District in Wheatland, moved to Casper and worked for H.M. Percel, and later worked for Exxon, retiring in 1981.

He married Vida L. Keefer in 1948 in Casper.

Survivors include his wife Vida, 2 sons; Gene and Gary Pilcher of Denver, 2 stepsons; Cleve and Kohn Artery of Wheatland, 2 sisters; Dorothy Sutton of Wheatland and Marie Komegay of Denver, 1 brother; Don Pilcher of Longmont, Colo, 7 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Memorials to Blue Envelope Hospice Division would be appreciated by the family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister and one stepson.

Cremation has taken place. Private interment will be at a later date in Wheatland.

Memorial Chapel, 710 E. Second Street in Casper, is in charge of arrangements.