

POTTER, FRED LYMAN
November 5, 1869-June 23, 1956

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) for Fred Lyman Potter, 86, who passed away June 23, at Evanston, Wyoming followed an extended illness.

Mr. Potter was born in Linking county, Ohio, November 5, 1869. He had made his residence in Wheatland since 1898 and at the time of his death was a retired cement contractor.

Mr. Potter was affiliated with the Methodist Church, A.D. & A.M., No. 16, Consistory and the Korein Shrine Temple.

Services were held at 2 p.m. at the Schrader chapel with Mr. Floyd Hopper and Rev. J.B. Milstead officiating. Burial was made in the Wheatland cemetery with Masonic graveside services.

Surviving relatives are four sons, Rupert L. of Wheatland, Burton Potter, El Monte, Calif.; Millard Potter, Tarzana, Calif., and Leslie Potter of Huntington Park, Calif. Two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Beebe of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Agnes Meehan of St. Louis, Mo. Twelve grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Harold Garrett, Henry Wellman, Franzel Memmer, Blaine Memmer, Jerry Waitman and W.I. Sutherland.