

Betty Jane Price

October 4, 1938 – December 5, 2015

Betty Price passed away Dec. 5 at Pathways Hospice in Loveland, Colo. after a many year battle with cancer.

A celebration of life will be held at the First State Bank Conference Center in Wheatland. Sunday, Jan. 3 at 1 p.m.

Betty was born Oct. 4, 1938 in Amboy, Ill. The daughter of William Antoine and Helen Buchanan.

She met her husband, John and they married May 18, 1957 in Plymouth, Ind. Where they worked, lived and had a son, Kurt. Then in 1972, they moved to Wyoming. After working on a ranch near JayEm for a year, they moved to Wheatland. Betty & John started a business which became Price Pump Co.

Betty worked in all facets of the business. Mainly as the bookkeeper in later years.

Two of her passions in life was her 'gambling bug'. As well as her grandson, Coan.

She is survived by her husband, John; son Kurt and grandson Coan. Her younger sister, Marylin (Wayne) Bopes (Ill).

She was preceded in death by her parents (Ill.); her brother, Donald (Ill.); her sister, Jean (Ind.).

Memorials may be given to Wyoming Foundation for Cancer Care, 6501 E. 2nd St, Casper, WY 82609.