

RAMSEY, ESSIE
February 15, 1896-July 13, 1965

Last rites for Essie Ramsey, a retired ranch foreman, will be held at the Schrader Chapel, Friday, July 16 at 10:30 a.m. with Mr. Dale Scheffler officiating. Interment will be in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mr. Ramsey was born in Holt county, Mo. on February 15, 1896. He was married to Lorie Rhodes in April 1916 in Oregon, Mo. and moved to Platte County in 1934. He was employed on the Ned Foss ranch for several years prior to his retirement. Death occurred in the Platte County Memorial Hospital on July 13, following an extended illness.

Surviving relatives include his wife; sons, Loren of Wheatland, Leo of Medicine Bow and Rex of Laramie; daughters, Mrs. Jack (Inez) Carter of Bremerton, Wash., and Mrs. Mildred Warner of Cody. A brother, Harold, Albuquerque, N.M. and sisters, Mrs. Bertha Currier and Mrs. Cora Gudmunson, Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Hazel Smith, Ottawa, Kans., and Mrs. Coleen Potter, Peru, Nebr.; thirteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Serving as casket bearers will be Harry Linton, Virgil Bennett, Clarence Bennett, Frank Kuehner, Delbert Howe and Don Cook.