

Charlotte Nicholson Rehkow

9-3-1980

Services for Marianne Charlotte Nicholson Rehkow, 47, who died Sept. 3, 1980, were held Friday at All Saints Episcopal Church with Father Sid Hoadley officiating.

Marianne was born in Wheatland Dec. 16, 1932, the daughter of William Donald and Luella Pearson Nicholson. She lived in Wheatland for several years before moving to Greeley, Colo., with her parents. She attended school in Greeley then returned to Wheatland where she graduated from high school.

Following her graduation from Wheatland High School she attended the University of Wyoming for two years. She then moved to Denver, Colo., where she accepted a position with Standard Oil in accounting.

While living in Denver she became acquainted with Matt Jahn who was the contractor for the building of the U.S. Air Force Academy stadium. Marianne handled the bookwork for the project.

During this time she also became active in the election campaign for Sen. Gordon Allott. Her activities were curtailed when she was afflicted with Multiple Sclerosis. Poor health eventually forced her to return to the Wheatland area.

Recently Marianne has been affiliated with Bohl's Our Own Hardware as a bookkeeper.

Survivors include her mother, Luella Nicholson of Wheatland; one sister, Barbara Werre of Torrance, Calif.; a niece, Louisa Basile; a nephew, John Pearson; and her god father, Howard Fish. Her father preceded her in death.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Memorials in Marianne's name have been established to either All Saints Episcopal Church or the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
