

RILEY, MARTHA B. SCHRADER

July 29, 1882-July 29, 1954

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha B. Riley, wife of A.D. Riley, were held at the Christian church, Monday, August 2 at 2:00 p.m. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery with Harry Coleman, M.L. Coleman, Ross Donaldson, Claude Donaldson, Clem McAuley, and Charles McAuley as pallbearers. Floyd Hopper was the officiating minister.

Members of the family who survive, in addition to Mr. Riley, are a daughter, Mrs. R.E. Goering, Casper; two sons, Truman Riley of Casper, and Richard Riley of Dwyer; a brother, Richard Schrader, Sunny Valley, Ore.; and a sister, Mrs. F.C. Butler; as well as seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

The daughter of Richard and Johanna Schrader, Mrs. Riley was born July 29, 1882, in Andover, S.D. When she was eleven years old, the family moved to Casper. She was married at Casper November 29, 1906 and has since then made her home in Platte county, living until the past few years on the ranch near Dwyer.

She was christened in the Episcopal church as a small child. She was a member of the Natrona Pioneers association of Casper, the Cottonwood club and the Mothers Home club.
