

ROBINSON, FRANCIS LAVERN
January 12, 1923-September 11, 1965

Francis Lavern Robinson, born in Keeline, Wyo. on Jan. 12, 1923 was called by death at the Platte County Memorial Hospital on Sept. 11, 1965 after an illness of four months. Mr. Robinson served with the US Navy during World War II as a motor machinist 2/c from February 1943 until December 1945. He had resided near Wheatland since 1947 where he farmed until his illness. He was a member of the Catholic church.

Family members remaining are his wife, Madeline Brown Robinson and children, Raymond, James, Mary and Anna, all of Wheatland; his mother, Mrs. Emma Robinson of Wheatland, and sister, Mrs. David Birkle of Linch, Wyo.

Military honors were held at the graveside in the local cemetery following the services conducted by Father Leonard Wren at the St. Patrick's church at 10:00 a.m. on Sept. 15. Pallbearers included Tim Mylet, William Lebsack, John Mylet, William Hayden, Mick Miller and Hank Mallery.