

Tessie Romig

Services for Tessie Romig, 96, who died in Wheatland Feb. 1, 1989, were held Saturday, Feb. 4, 1989, at 10:30 a.m. in the Platte Funeral Chapel with Pastor Delbert Dick officiating.

She was born in Missouri on May 7, 1892, the daughter of James F. and Cora (Moody) Houston. When she was 12 her family moved to the Kansas-Oklahoma border.

In 1912 she married Earl Romig and a year later they moved to Wyoming to ranch in the Antelope Gap area. In 1962 she moved into Wheatland where she lived until the time of her death.

She was a member of the First Christian Church, the Antelope Gap Grange and the East of Town Club. For many years she raised roses and had garden parties with her neighbors.

Survivors include daughter Agnes Hitt of Wheatland, sister Alice Manvey of Powell, three grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, a son, a brother and two sisters.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Platte County Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery with Tony Weber, Lynn Foster, Glen Valentine, Jack Johnson, Lee Johnson and Louie Montoya serving as pall-bearers.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
