

Diane Cummings Rutledge 1939 to 1997

3-25-1997

Funeral services for Diane Cummings were held March 29 in Medford, Ore. Interment will be held in the Wheatland Cemetery April 18 at 2 p.m.

Diane passed away March 25 in Medford. She was born Jan. 4, 1939 in Wheatland to Harry and Carlene Cummings.

She was raised near Wheatland by her maternal grandmother Augusta Blankenship and graduated from high school in 1957.

She married Darwin Rutledge in Denver, Colo., December 1957. She had two daughters; Carol, 34 and Stacey, 25, both of Coeur d' Alene, Idaho.

Diane was an exceptional pianist and a very gifted artist. She played for the Methodist Church and was the pianist for choirs throughout her school career. Her landscapes and still life paintings were appreciated by many.

At the time of her death by her maternal grandmother and her father.

Diane is survived by her mother, Carlene Keefer and step-father Chuck of Manila, Utah; her daughters; three half-sisters, Judy Fender-Fear of Salida, Colo., Joy Wilhelm of Wheatland, and Hap Younger-Cantrell of Casper. Step-mother Pat, three half-brothers and one half sister all of Denver; one grandson and many nieces and nephews.