

SALAZAR, MARY PACOMIO

August 14, 1884-June 30, 1942

Joe Abelino Salazar and Mary Pacomio Salazar died recently of injuries incurred in the tornado that swept their small tenant house away.

Joe Salazar was born in 1884 in LaQuend, New Mexico. He had been a resident in the Wheatland community for twelve years and had more recently been employed at the Glen Cochran farm southwest of town. He was blown from the house during the storm and lived a bare two hours after it was over. Funeral services were held Monday morning at the St. Patrick church. His wife, Mary Pacomio Salazar was born August 14, 1884 in Mora County, New Mexico. She passed away June 30 in the Wheatland hospital. Funeral services will be held for Mrs. Salazar Friday at nine a.m. at the St. Patrick's church with Father Miller officiating.

This couple leaves to mourn their passing four sons and two daughters. One son is in the armed forces and is believed to be overseas.
