

SAVERINE, JOSEPH JOHN
September 14, 1911-December 20, 1984

Services for Joseph John Saverine, 73, who died in Wheatland Dec. 20, were held Dec. 26 at 10 a.m. in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with Father Cletus Prado officiating.

Saverine was born in Italy, Sept. 14, 1911. The age of six months he moved with his family to Connecticut where he was raised and received his education.

After finishing school he worked for the railroad for a time before moving to Denver, Colo., in 1946.

Later he worked for the Diamond Guest Ranch near Chugwater, and upon moving to Wheatland was employed by the Wheatland Hospital and later by the school district as custodian and bus driver.

He retired in 1977 and spent his retirement years in Wheatland.

He and Alma Franzen were married in Torrington, July 14, 1982.

He was a member of the Catholic Church and a 30 year member of the Moose Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Alma, and a son Thomas Saverine, both of Wheatland; a brother, James Saverine of Ansonia, Conn., five sisters; and eight step-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, a brother, and a sister.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made to the Wheatland Ambulance Service or to St. Joseph Children's Home in Torrington.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
