Laura Christina Anna Schad

11-2-1990

Funeral services for Laura Christina Anna Schad, age 85, will be held at the Platte Funeral Chapel Wednesday, Nov. 7 (today) at 11 a.m., with Pastor Mark Patzke officiating.

Mrs. Schad died Nov. 2 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital. Interment will be in Wheatland Cemetery.

Laura Christina Anna Schad was born Nov. 14, 1904 at Bennington, Neb., the daughter of Otto and Therese (Gottsch) Witt. She was reared and educated in Nebraska. She married Ray Schad June 25, 1924 at St. Edward, Neb.

The couple moved to Wheatland in 1941 where Ray worked as a mechanic, and later had his own business, where Laura helped by keeping the books.

She was a member of the Lutheran Church and a longtime member of the Wheatland Moose Lodge.

She is survived by two sons, Otto Schad of Wheatland, and Norman R. Schad of Rivieria, Ariz., and a daughter, Virginia Dunblazier of Casper. Also surviving are a brother, Harry Witt, of Randolph, Neb., two sisters, Hazel Westmore of Lodi, Calif., and Blanche Pinkerman of Anderson, Ind. Four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren also survive.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and one granddaughter.

Serving as pallbearers were Joe Howard, Terry Brant, Ed Melcher, Herb Merback, Bob Grant and Gordon Swedberg.

A memorial has been established for the Wheatland Nursing Home. The Platte Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
