

Ethel V. Scheler

12-31-1981

Funeral services for Ethel V. Scheler, age 87, were held Monday Jan. 4, in the Glendo Community Church with Rev. Robert Muhn officiating. Burial followed in the Wheatland Cemetery under direction of the McColley Funeral Home of Newcastle.

Mrs. Scheler died Thursday, Dec. 31, at her home in Newcastle.

Music was by Mrs. Lancaster, organist, and Mrs. Zonie Tyler, vocalist. Casket bearers were Timothy Ayers, Kevin Orcutt, David Cundall, Chuck Orcutt, Fred Cundall and Charles Clements.

She was born Oct. 20, 1894 at Newberg, Ore., the daughter of J.C. and Eva Estep. At an early age she moved with her family to Oberlin, Kan. where she received her education. She also set type for the Oberlin Herald and Oberlin Times newspapers. Following graduation, she attended normal school and in 1913 taught school in a rural area south of Oberlin. On Sept. 18, 1915, she married Raymond H. Scheler at Oberlin. The couple moved to Glendo, Wyo. where they continued to farm until the death of her husband in 1935. Mrs. Scheler completed raising and educating her children by becoming a cook at the Tippie Inn in Glendo. She also cooked at Douglas, Wyo.

She was a member of Michaels Senior Citizens Center and Rebekah Lodge No. 15, Douglas.

She is survived by four daughters, Olive Ayres of Newcastle, Beula Chroninger of Greybull, Doris Cundall of Graig Colo. and Sylvia Orcutt of Moorcroft. She is also survived by one sister, Beula Elwood of Glendo, 15 grandchildren, 25 great grandchildren, one great, great grandchild, several neices and nephews, and a host of friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two sons, two brothers, one sister, two great grandchildren and her parents.