

Maude Schreyer

October 27, 1906-April 26, 2001

Services for Maude Erie Gertrude Perdue Schreyer, 94, were held Monday, April 30, at 10 a.m. at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland with Rev. Shannon Schreyer officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Maude died Thursday, April 27 at the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home in Wheatland.

She was born Oct. 27, 1906, in Freeman, W.Va., the daughter of Irving Underwood and Laura Etta (Pence) Walker. Maude was reared and educated in West Virginia and was married there in 1923 to Ambrose Perdue. Three children were born to this union: Frances E., Jessie A. and James E. Perdue. After Mr. Perdue's untimely death in 1928, Maude moved with her children to Wheatland in December of 1929 and married Charles F. Schreyer on Feb. 15, 1930 in Wheatland. They farmed and ranched, until 1958, west of Wheatland; selling the ranch and moving into town in 1959. Maude worked at the William Irvine Home for several years before moving to Jackson Hole, Wyo. in 1963. In Jackson, she was the manager of the maid department at the Wagon Wheel Motel until her retirement in 1979 when she returned to Wheatland.

In 1994 she became a resident of the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home. Maude was a past member of the Women of the Moose, Rebekah's, Royal Neighbors and American Legion Auxiliary. She enjoyed crocheting and playing cards. Maude love her children and grandchildren very much.

Maude is survived by two children, Wilhelmina E. "Wille" Adams and Frank P. Schreyer both of Wheatland.; 17 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; and 21 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands, Ambrose Perdue in 1928 and Charles Frederick Schreyer on April 28, 1958; six children, Jessie Perdue, Charles Schreyer Jr., James Perdue, Frances Schirmer, Mildred Brecht and Shirlee Reed; four sisters; five brothers; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Jim Schirmer, Steve Schirmer, Dan Brecht, Mark Brown, Stan Schirmer and George Perdue. Honorary pallbearers were Terry Perdue, Greg Schirmer, Leon Schirmer, David Brecht, her granddaughters, great-grandchildren and many friends.

Memorials to the Platte County Memorial Hospital and Nursing Home, 201 - 14th Street, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
