

1984 VELMA JEAN SCHREYER

Velma Jean Schreyer died at her home unexpectedly on Sunday Feb. 19, at the age of 42 years.

Velma Heard was born Oct. 11, 1941 in Spokane, Wash. When she was a young girl, she moved with her family to Montana and then to California for a short time.

The family then moved to Harrisburg, Neb., where she was raised and completed her education. In 1959 she moved with her mother to Wheatland. She met Frank Schreyer and the couple was married here in Wheatland in May, 1960.

She and Frank raised their family here and she was active in a family musical group. She has been associated with her husband in a diesel repair business during the past nine years.

She is survived by her husband, Frank, daughter, Shawn Schreyer, son, Shannon Schreyer, and granddaughter, Andrea Schreyer, all of Wheatland. Surviving also is her mother, Carrie Heard of Saratoga, Wyo. and a sister, Eula McCaslan of Hershey, Neb.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Feb. 23, at 10:30 a.m. at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Dan Barcus officiating. Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial in her name has been established to either the Wheatland Ambulance or to the First Christian Church.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
