

SCOTT, ROBERT WILLIAM
September 8, 1905-July 1, 1975

Robert W. Scott of 852 Mason St., died Tuesday, July 1, 1975 at Platte County Memorial Hospital of an extended illness. Mr. Scott, 69, had been a resident of Wheatland since 1916.

He was born September 8, 1905 in Chetopa, Kansas. Before coming here, he lived in Kimball, Nebr. He was married to Rose Katherine Scott.

Last rites were held in the United Methodist Church presided over by Rev. Elliott Graves Thursday, July 3, 1975. Interment was at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were Dwaine Scott, Tony Williams, Leon Scott, Leon Lambert, Douglas Arnold, Bill Johnke. Honorary pallbearers were Bud Hoth, Gordon Drury, Pete Lambert, and Harold Garrett.

He is survived by his widow, Rose; two sons, Thomas of Torrington and John of Douglas; seven daughters, Louise Roberts of Wheatland, Margaret Boelter of Spring Valley, Calif., Delores Goolsby of Quincy, Wash., Betty James of Wheatland, Darlene Arnold of Cheyenne, Patty Johnke of Wheatland, and Georgia Goolsby of Wheatland; two brothers, Albert of Wheatridge, Colo., and Ed of Wheatland; three sisters, Margaret Hamm of Sheridan, Aileen Brettell of Cheyenne, and Thursey Hawkins of Fontanna, Calif., 33 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.