

Ronald Dean Scott

¹⁰⁻⁴⁻¹⁹⁹¹
Funeral services for Ronald Dean Scott, 37, held Wednesday, Oct. 9, 1991, at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, with Andy Gudahl, Minister, officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Scott died Friday, Oct. 4 at the Converse County Memorial Hospital emergency room in Douglas of injuries received in an automobile accident.

He was born June 1, 1954 in Wheatland, the son of Johnny and Eileen (See) Scott. He was reared and educated in Wheatland. He worked at various odd jobs until 1973 when he went to work for the Town of Wheatland for seven years.

In 1980 he moved to Douglas where he delivered a local paper for two years. he worked at Broken Wheel Truck Stop as a dishwasher until the time of his death.

He attended the A.J. Woods Training Center in Casper where he learned the trade of janitorial work. He enjoyed going to the Wyoming Cowboys' basketball and football games, watching TV, going on Fun Flights to Nevada and buying gifts for his nephews.

He is survived by his parents of Douglas, one sister, Dixie Bartow of Guernsey, and one brother, Leon Scott of Reno, Nev. Also surviving are three nephews, Philip Bartow, Jonathan Bartow and Terry Bartow, all of Guemsey, his maternal grandmother, Anna Vee See of Guemsey, and paternal grandmother, Rosie Scott of Wheatland, and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Paul See, in 1961, and paternal grandfather, Robert Scott in 1975.

Serving as pallbearers were Tom Kahler, George Perdue, Art Juarez, Carlos Juarez, Fred Hoth and Scott Memmer.

A memorial to the A.J. Woods Work Training Center, 500 South Walsh Drive, Casper, WY, 82601, would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Converse Funeral Chapel of Douglas and the Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland were in charge of arrangements.