

SCOTT, THURSEY MAE HOWE
February 5, 1877-November 20, 1959

Last rites were held Monday for Thrusey Mae Scott, from the Schrader Chapel at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Robert L. French officiating. Mrs Scott passed away November 20, 1959 after an extended illness.

She was born in Fairfield, Mo. February 5, 1877 and had made her home in Wheatland for the 42 years. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving are three sons, Edward R. and Robert of Wheatland, Albert of Idaho Springs, Colo.; three daughters, Mrs. Jack Hawkins, Fontana, Calif., Mrs. Wilbur Brettell, Cheyenne, Mrs. Roy Hamm, Sheridan.; one brother, Harry Howe, Coffeyville, Kans.; two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Pennington, Leon, Kans. and Mrs. Lenore Worden of Washington; 19 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren.

Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery and pallbearers were Frank Kuehner, Sam Isabell, Frank Whittaker, Harold Garrett, Jim Angle and Delbert Snook.