

Max W. Shafer

8 - 6 - 1994

Memorial services for Max W. Shafer, 65 were held Thursday, August 11, 1994, at 2 p.m. at the New Testament Christian Church in Wheatland, with Dan Barcus, Minister, officiating. A private memorial service was held by the family at a later date at Squaw Mountain outside of Wheatland.

Max W. Shafer, beloved husband and father passed away suddenly, Saturday, August 6, 1994, at the Veteran's Administration Medical Center in Denver, Colo., of complications from cancer.

He was born June 6, 1929, in Arcola, Laramie County, the son of William E. and Floy Clara (Dove) Shafer. He attended school in Chugwater, and later served as a Sergeant in the Army National Guard at Fort Campbell, Ky., during the Korean conflict.

Max was a long-standing resident of Wheatland where he operated his businesses: Wyoming Outdoor Advertising and Arrowhead RV Park. He married May Johnston in Wheatland, on October 20, 1973.

Max is survived by his wife, May of Wheatland; two brothers, Andy W. Shafer of Miles City, Mont. and Ralph R. Shafer of Bessemer, Ala., two sons, John M. Shafer of Cheyenne and Andy M. Shafer and wife, Carol of Pleasant Hill, Calif., three daughters, Delores M. Cheville and husband, Larry, Shirley A. White, and Sharon L. White all of Wheatland; and six grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his first wife, Helen M. (Pulver) Shafer; three brothers, George, John, and Edward Shafer and a sister, Angie Young.

Memorials to a charity of the donor's choice in memory of Max W. Shafer would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
