

Alfred Sheldon Succumbs After Brief Illness

6-2-1954

Another long-time resident of the county, Alfred B. Sheldon, 76, died at a local hospital Wednesday following a brief illness. He was born in Decatur, Mich., but had lived here for many years, and was residing at the Irvine Memorial home when he was stricken. He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Chugwater, and of the Cheyenne Congregational church. He was formerly store manager for the Swan company.

Survivors are a son, James A. of Laramie, two daughters, Mrs. Betty Eckhart of Vernal, Utah, and Mrs. Mary Kay Patterson of Casper; a brother, Leo B. Sheldon of Wheatland, a half-brother, Don Mudd of Laramie, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held at the Schrader chapel tomorrow, Friday, June 4, at 3:00 p. m. with burial in the local cemetery. The Rev. J. B. Milstead will officiate.
