

SHELDON, A.B.
?-January 2, 1895

The angel of death has come into our midst and taken one of our most estimable friends, Mr. A.B. Sheldon. He leaves an amiable wife and two sons, Alford and Leo. All who knew Mr. Sheldon will miss him greatly. He was a jovial, kind-hearted and trustworthy gentleman. His sickness and death were quite unexpected and is a great shock to his family. He died Wednesday morning, January 2nd, at 7 o'clock. May his soul rest in peace. Mrs. Sheldon, who has so patiently borne her great trial, has the sympathy and kind wishes of us all.
