

SHINN, CHARLES WESLEY

?-August 25, 1943

Charles Wesley Shinn, 80, retired farmer living eight miles west of Wheatland with his brother, Guy Shinn, died Wednesday morning of this week, after a long illness.

Mr. Shinn came to this community twenty-eight years ago, and homesteaded on the Laramie river. He had never married, and in recent years, had made his home with his brother.

Besides his brother, he is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Schrader chapel Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, the Rev. C.S. Higby officiating. Pallbearers will be Charles Palmer, Fred Erickson, T.E. Tugman, John Kissel, Claud Norris and Lester Short.