

SMITH, CLARENCE G.
July 27, 1891-October 24, 1956

Funeral services were held October 27 at the Schrader chapel at 2 p.m. for Clarence G. Smith, 65, former Wheatland resident. Mr. Smith passed away October 24, in the St. Mary's hospital at Grand Junction, Colo., following a car accident in which he incurred a skull fracture.

A resident of Rifle, Colo., Mr. Smith was born at July 27, 1891 in Worth county, Mo.

He formerly carried mail on the Fletcher Park route and lived in Wheatland from 1916 to 1937. He was affiliated with the Odd Fellows lodge.

The Rev. J.B. Milstead officiated and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mary of Rifle; four daughters, Mrs. Patience Foy of Glendo, Mrs. Ruby June Cenni of Clifton, Colo., Mrs. Dessie Stone of Silt, Colo., and Mrs. Georgene M. McDermott of Cowdrey, Colo.; two sisters, Mrs. John Shaw of Lyden, Colo., and Mrs. Bud Bastin of Oshkosh, Neb.; and seventeen grandchildren

Pallbearers were his nephews.