

SNAKENBERG, EVERETT E.

June 28, 1911-May 22, 1953

Funeral services were held in the Lingle Community church on May 26 for a former resident, Everett Snakenberg, 41, who died suddenly in Torrington Saturday evening, May 22. Rev. David Stoward of the Lingle church officiated.

He was married to Edna May Thompson of Dwyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.G. Thompson, the ceremony taking place in Wheatland, September 30, 1930. For some years the couple lived in the Dwyer community, moving to Lingle about 14 years ago. He was employed as a truck driver for Carl Carr of Torrington.

Survivors besides his wife are three daughters, Sharon and Cleo at home, and Mrs. Bernard Jesse of Sunrise; two brothers, Reginald of Slater and Jesse of Hood River, Ore. and one sister, Mrs. Bertha Shoemaker of Timmath, Colo.
