

SOUTHWORTH, DALE

2-November 4, 1915

Dale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D.M. Southworth, died on Tuesday last, aged 7 years and 6 months, after an illness of only four days from scarlet fever.

Dale was an unusually bright and attractive little fellow, the pride of his parents and idol of his grandparents, and his sudden death is a terrible shock to them.