

Clarence Soward succumbs June 9

6-9-1962

Clarence A. Soward was born in Placerville, Ida., December 2, 1897, and passed away at Wheatland June 9, 1962 following an extended illness. He was the son of Albert E. and Ida May Franchier Soward and had made his home here for 54 years. He was a cement contractor and a World War I veteran.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Billie Lou Floan, Palm Springs, Calif. and a brother, Frank of Wheatland.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday June 13, from the Schrader chapel at 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Dale Sheffler officiating, and interment was in the Wheatland cemetery. Pall bearers were Frank Rawlings, Walter Lockman, Julius Galligar, Bill Galligar, George Gamblin and Roy Gamblin.

f
me
om-
ar-
17.
ns.
yo-
age
of
ber
of a
ch.
M. vin
fic-
ro-
ne,
ne
rs.
ge,
ar-
nd-
at
ev.
nd
mon,
Dr.
nd