

SPAULDING, DANA LLOYD, JR.

February 24, 1918-May 15, 1975

Funeral services for Dana Lloyd (Moose) Spaulding, 57, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, May 19, at Glendo Community Church.

Spaulding died Thursday at the Veterans' Hospital in Denver.

Born Feb. 24, 1918, at Atwood, Kans., Spaulding moved with his parents to the Cassa Community south of Glendo, in 1920. He attended the Glendo schools and worked in a CCC Camp before serving in World War II with the Air Force in Europe.

Spaulding was engaged in ranching near Glendo following his Army discharge.

Spaulding was preceded in death by his father, Dana L. Spaulding, Sr., and by two brothers, John and Gene.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Nellie Spaulding of the family home; three brothers, Walter of Sheridan, Joe of Cassa and Hugh of North Hollywood, Calif. He is also survived by three sisters, Eva Collins of Glendo, Mary Ann Lindeen of Anchorage, Alaska and June Emerson of Casper. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Burial was at the Wheatland Cemetery.
