

Dana Spaulding Dies August 22

8-22-1970
Dana L. Spaulding of Glendo, died at Platte County Memorial Hospital Aug. 22 after a brief illness.

Mr. Spaulding was born in Orego, Kan., Feb. 15, 1894 and was married to Nellie May Meyers on Sept. 17, 1912 at Atwood, Kans. They moved to the Cassa area to take up ranching in 1920. He was affiliated with the Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held Wed., Aug. 26, at 2:00 p.m. in the Glendo Community Church, with Rev. Carl Richmond officiating. Burial was at the Wheatland cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Nellie May Spaulding, Glendo, four sons, Walter E., Sheridan, Joe A., Glendo, Dana L. jr., Glendo, Hugh M., North Hollywood, Calif. and three daughters, Mrs. William Collins, Glendo, Mrs. Harold Lindeen, Anchorage, Alaska and Mrs. Larry Emerson, Casper. Three children preceded him in death.

Pallbearers were: Everett Weimer, Homer Trimble, Ivan Van Buskirk, Stanley Hooley, Willard Baxter, George Collins, Jr.

Honorary Pallbearers were:

Ivan Hooley, Gordon Wilson, Dan Brown, Clayton Harvey, Wm. Johnson, James Hughes and Lyle Moffitt.