

STANFORD, THEODORE

1882-July 16, 1941

Theodore (Ted) Stanford, former well-known resident of Wheatland community and Glendo, passed away in a heart attack at his home in Greeley, Colo. on July 16. Though Ted had been in poor health for some time, the suddenness of his death was a great shock to his family and friends.

Ted Stanford is survived by his widow, Mrs. Edith Stanford, a daughter, Mrs. Clara Teel of Johnstown, Colo., and two grandchildren; a son and daughter having preceded him in death.

The remains will be brought to Wheatland from Greeley and a short service will be held from the Watson and Dennis funeral home Saturday at 2 p.m., with interment at the Wheatland cemetery.
