

STARR, ANNA CELIA SUVERKRUBBO

August 20, 1875-June 18, 1954

Funeral rites were held at the Schrader chapel Monday afternoon at two o'clock for Mrs. Anna Celia Starr whose death, Friday, June 18, followed a long illness. The Rev. J.B. Milstead and the Rev. Irvin Noyce officiated at the service. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Serving as active pallbearers were Ross Donaldson, Glen Lewis, Claude Donaldson, John Miller, Wilbur Parker, and J.L. Bailey. Dolph Riley, Jack Hobbs, Elvin Hudson, Julius Miller, William Carlisle, Laramie, Dick Riley, William Peppers and Forest Vermilyea were honorary pallbearers.

Mrs. Starr was born in Blair, Nebr. August 20, 1875 and died at the age of 75 years. Mr. and Mrs. Starr homesteaded in this area in 1914 and lived here for many years. For the past twenty years, they had made their home at Timnath, Colo.

Survivors included her husband, Joseph, Timnath; her sons, Elmer of Merrick, N.Y., Henry of Julian, Calif., Hans of Ramona, Calif., George of Richmond, Va, Roy of Wheatland and Sam of Ft. Lupton, Colo.; and her daughters, Mrs. Margaret Roskie, Wheatland, Mrs. Minnie Fertig, Ft. Morgan, Colo., Mrs. Josephine Worthington, Richland, Wash.. Other surviving relatives are three brothers, 29 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.