

STARR, WILLIAM JOSEPH
August 7, 1872-March 26, 1959

Funeral services were conducted for William Joseph Starr, 86, from the Schrader Chapel Monday, March. 30, 1959 at 2:00 p.m. Rev. J.B. Milstead officiated.

Mr. Starr was born in Lynn, Missouri, August 7, 1872 and passed away at his home in Timnath, Colo., March 26, 1959, following a short illness. He was a retired rancher and came to Wyoming in 1900. In 1931, he moved to Longmont, and in 1938 to Timnath.

He is survived by six sons; Elmer of Orlando, Fla., Henry of Julian, Calif.; George of Richmond, Va.; Roy of Wheatland, and Sam of Kimball, Nebr.; three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Roskie, Wheatland, Mrs. Minnie Fertig, Kimball, Nebr., and Mrs. Josephine Worthington of Timnath, Colo.; two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Young, Merriam, Kans. and Mrs. Nannie Atnip, Haskell, Okla., as well as 30 grandchildren.

His wife, Anna, passed away in 1954, and a son, Saul, preceded him in death in 1927.

Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery with pallbearers being Ross Donaldson, Claude Donaldson, J.L. Bailey, George Wain, R. C. Vermilyea and John Miller.