

STELLPFLUG, FLOYD CHARLES
September 21, 1935-October 29, 1951

Floyd Charles Stellpflug, sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F.G. Stellpflug, died October 29, in the Methodist hospital at Scottsbluff four days after he was stricken with bulbar polio.

Floyd was born in Torrington, Wyo. September 21, 1935. He was a junior in high school and lived with his parents seven miles south of Guernsey.

Surviving, besides his parents, are five brothers, four sisters, and his grandmother, Ulrika Stellpflug, also of Guernsey.

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) at 2:00 at the graveside with the Rev. C.E. Tilford of Guernsey officiating.

Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery with Schrader's in charge of arrangements.