

Kathryn Ann Hester-Street

6-18-1993
Funeral services for Kathryn Ann Hester-Street, 30, were held Friday, June 25, 1993, at 2 p.m. at Saint Patrick's Catholic Church in Wheatland, with Father Joseph Fraher and Father Pat Shea officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Street died Friday, June 18, 1993 at her home in Benton City, Wash. She was born Sept. 13, 1962 in Wheatland, the daughter of Newton Fulton and Ann M. (Johnson) Hester. Kathryn was raised in rural Niobrara County and graduated from Lusk High School in 1981.

She lived in the Lusk area for a short period after graduation and then moved to the Greeley, Colo., area where she trained for her job at the Fort St. Vrain power plant.

She then transferred to her job in Benton City, Wash., at the Washington Public Power Supply System where she provided administrative support to the training program.

She then married Gary Street on March 3, 1993 in Richland, Wash. She was a member of Saint Leo's Catholic Church in Lusk, Wyo., and a member of the Philanthropic Education Organization.

She is survived by her husband, Gary, of Benton City, Wash., and her parents, Newton and Ann Hester of Keeline, Wyo. Also surviving are three children, Zachary Thomas Milke of Benton City, Wash., Joseph John Milke of Greeley, Colo., Sarah Lynn Milke of Benton City Wash., two step-children, Renee Street of Gresham, Ore., and Bill Street of Denver, Colo., two brothers, John Franklin Hester of Keeline, Wyo., and Wade Allen Hester of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Her paternal grandparents, N. Fulton and Maesel E. Hester of Wheatland also remain. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Ralph B. and Aileen N. Johnson.

Serving as pallbearers were Dan Mahnke, Jim Smith, Raime Fosher, Andy Barnette, Richard Arsulich and Bob Shattuck.

A memorial to the American Cancer Society would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
