

Ella Maye Strickler

WHEATLAND — Services for Ella Maye Strickler, 90, will be 2 p.m. Saturday in the First Christian Church.

Dan Bracus and Chet Shaw will officiate. Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Strickler died in Wheatland Dec. 22, 1986.

Born March 1, 1896 in King City, Mo., she was the daughter of Frank and Mary Marlow. She was reared and educated in Missouri.

On April 9, 1919, she married Luther Strickler and they came to Wyoming and homesteaded in Dwyer where she also taught school.

Later, they farmed near Wheatland prior to moving into town to operate Strickler Produce. They then managed the Irvine Memorial House until retirement.

She was preceded in death by her husband, one son, James; three brothers, and two grandchildren.

Survivors include one son, Robert Strickler of Riverton; two daughters, Annesta Zee Parr of Cheyenne and Mary Lillian Howard of Wheatland; nine grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Memorials to the VFW Auxiliary Cancer Fund or the First Christian Church would be equally appreciated by the family. Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
