

SWAN, OSCAR ELVIRES
November 16, 1891-March 15, 1947

Oscar E. Swan, 55, a resident of Platte county since 1894, died in the Wheatland hospital on March 15 following a five day stay. He had been in ill health for some time. Mr. Swan was born in Burns, Wyo. on November 16, 1891 and had come to this community at the age of three years. Prior to his death, he had resided at his farm fourteen miles southeast of Wheatland.

He is survived by his wife Augusta; two sons, Walter M. Swan of Slater and Dean G. Swan of Wheatland; one daughter, Mrs. Alice Stevens, Pine Bluffs, Wyo.; two brothers, Gus and Barnett of Wheatland; one-half brother, Andrew Ekstrom of Wheatland; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Klassert and Mrs. Edward Klassert of Wheatland and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Methodist church with the Rev. W.W. Maxwell officiating. Pallbearers were Earl Romig, Oscar Throckmorton, Darrow Blow, William Burzlaff, Sr., Hal Ashenhurst and Denzil Blow. Burial was in the local cemetery with the Schrader Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.