

Stephen D. Sylvester

July 12, 1955 - February 3, 2017

Stephen D. Sylvester, 61, passed away Friday, Feb. 3, at the Cheyenne Regional Medical Center.

Stephen was born July 12, 1955 in Denver, Colo., the son of Arnold Dean and Marilyn Joe (Schott) Sylvester. He graduated from Charter Oak High school in Covina, Calif., where he was an excellent athlete, playing football and other sports. After high school he attended Mount San Antonio College and graduated with an Associate of Arts degree in photography. Steve was an avid photographer and enjoyed developing his own pictures as well. He had won several awards with his photography.

Steve was a long time employee of the Los Angeles Times newspaper.

Steve was preceded in death by his loving mother, Marilyn Sylvester on Nov. 26, 1999 and grandparents,

Fred and Leah Schott, Arnold (Bud) Sylvester and Merle Jennings.

He is survived by his father, Arnold Dean Sylvester of South Dakota; two sisters, Cathy West of California and Nancy Anderson of Texas; one niece, Julie West, of California; four nephews, Jaime West of California, Darrell Smith of California, Erickson Smith of Texas, and Lane Anderson of Texas; three wonderful aunts, Marilyn Ferracone, Clarice Sylvester both of Wheatland, and Patricia Bitner of Joplin, Mo.; and three cousins all of Wyoming.

A memorial will be held in the summertime at the Wheatland Cemetery.

The Gorman Funeral Homes – Platte Chapel of Wheatland are in charge of the arrangements.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.gormanfh.com