

9-22 WALTER EDWARD TAYLOR SR. 1984
Graveside services for Walter Edward Taylor, Sr., 88, who died in Wheatland Sept. 22 were held Sept. 26 in the Wheatland Cemetery with Dan Barcus officiating.

Taylor was born in Little Falls, N.J., Sept. 4, 1896, the son of David and Elizabeth Taylor. He was reared and educated in New Jersey.

After completing his education, Taylor became associated with the railroad as a brakeman. During World War I he enlisted in the U.S. Army and after being discharged he returned to the railroad from which he retired as a conductor in 1960.

He and Martha Zangenberg were married March 24, 1923. They lived in New Jersey until his retirement at which time they moved to Florida where they stayed until April of 1983 when they moved to Wheatland.

His wife preceded him in death August of this year.

Survivors include three sons: Walt Taylor of Wheatland; Robert Taylor of Sinjac, N.J.; and William Taylor of Bloomfield, N.J.; and five grandchildren.

Besides his wife he was preceded in death by two brothers and a sister.

A memorial in his name has been established to the Platte County Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
